

2020 Digital Japan Bowl Schedule

NOTE: All times are in Eastern Daylight Time (EDT)

Friday, May 29th

- 11:45 Main Room opens
- 12:00-12:20 pm EDT Opening remarks
- 12:30-2:30 pm EDT Level 2 Preliminary Round and Answer Review (Level 2 Zoom Meeting Room)
- 2:00-4:00 pm EDT Level 3 Preliminary Round and Answer Review (Level 3 Zoom Meeting Room)
- 3:30-5:30 pm EDT Level 4 Preliminary Round and Answer Review (Level 4 Zoom Meeting Room)
- 12:30-5:30 pm EDT University presentations, Raffle quizzes, cultural demonstrations, and other activities
- 12:45~1:15, 2:45~3:15, and 4:15~4:45 Workshops

Tea ceremony

Join a live tea ceremony demonstration with Jennifer Swanson, an omotesenke tea practitioner! She will introduce this important tradition before performing a tea ceremony and answering questions. Grab some matcha or your favorite tea to enjoy along with the tea ceremony!

Edamame Champ (Japanese Food)

Table for Two is a non-profit that promotes food education with a focus on Japanese cuisine. They have just begun their #EdamameChamp competition which gives you an opportunity to test your chopstick skills while learning about the central role soy plays in the Japanese diet. Bring your chopsticks and some edamame or other beans and test your skills! Go here for more information and to download the score sheet: <https://www.wa-shokuiku.org/edamamechamp>. How many beans can you pick up?

Japanese Conversation

日本語を練習 (れんしゅう) しましょう！
Meet your fellow competitors from around the country, and practice speaking Japanese! This session is a fun opportunity for you to connect with your peers across the country who share your love of Japan. This session will be led by Ryan D, one of the hosts of our Weekly Nihongo program!

Origami Workshop

Grab some origami paper (regular paper is ok too) and join Aykys for some origami crafts! Aykys is featured in JASWDC's Japan-in-a-Suitcase series and has some great craft ideas up her sleeve!

Calligraphy (pre-recorded)

Join JASWDC's calligraphy instructor, China-sensei, in a fun calligraphy quiz! China-sensei is currently in Okinawa, and has recorded a video of her drawing characters in the sand - can you figure out what she's writing? Answers are then drawn with calligraphy paper and pen. Perfect for those who want to practice their kanji! Feel free to follow along with a fude brush or regular pen!

1:30, 3:05, and 5:10	Kahoot Raffle Quizzes
2:00~2:20	JET Program Presentation
5:30-6:00 pm EDT	Onigiri Workshop and Dinner Break
6:00-6:30 pm EDT	Announcement of Finalists, video message from Princess Takamado
6:30-8:40 pm EDT	Championship Rounds Level II (6:30~7:10) Level III (7:15~7:55) Level IV (8:00~8:40)
8:40 -9:00 pm EDT	Awards and Closing Ceremony